

Sandiswa Qayi (MD)

Sandiswa Qayi has more than 5 year's executive and business management experience with more than 10 years project management experience. Her experience include working in the municipal economic development agency (Aspire) as Project Manager and Executive Manager of Abenzi Woodhouse a skills development and furniture manufacturing centre. In 2015 as Executive Manager of Abenzi Woodhouse she won FP&M SETA scholarship and was selected as one of the 26 SA companies to participate in the "International Leadership Development program that went to Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in Boston to study Systems engineering, design & manufacturing approach & Regenesys Business School postgraduate certificate in Business Management. As AET executive manager she led the company together with her partners to win multi awards and continue to develop and execute strategy for international positioning of AET AFRICA. Her expertise and other qualifications includes Bachelor of Social Sciences (Rhodes University) and Masters in Development studies (Nelson Mandela University) specializing in rural economic development.

My Hobbies: Reading, creative writing, travelling, speed boats, driving fast cars, movies, music